PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I mentioned at the Annual Meeting in June and in my August message that I will champion the return of our Observer Corps. We are about to begin this project. Penny Niland has graciously agreed to lead this effort. And, of course, we need your help.

Words of Wisdom: The League has been a champion of government transparency since our founding in 1920. League members attend governmental meetings to learn what their government is doing and to monitor whether those meetings are conducted in an open and transparent way. Experience has shown the importance of the League being present to watch, and to take action when necessary. The observer corps or monitoring program is not new to Sacramento County League. If you were an observer in the past, please contact Penny Niland (or me) with your words of wisdom and offers to advise or help in any way. Our phone numbers and email addresses appear to the left.

Those who attended Annual Meeting in June heard Illa Collin tell us that observing was her first activity with the Sacramento League in 1967. When I accepted the nomination for president last spring I asked some League leaders for advice. Illa said, "Bring back the observer corps".

Best Practices: This year the national League published a new resource guide, "Observing Your Government in Action". This documents how observer programs work and describes the benefits to League and the public. The author compiled some "best practices" and tells how these programs contribute to the vitality of the league. The guide addresses starting an observer program, recruiting, training, the mechanics, sharing what is observed, and the benefits. I attended a workshop the author presented at the state League convention in Bakersfield. Penny took part in a recent national League conference call on the subject. We will add an Observer Corps section to our web site with a link to this LWVUS publication.

Observers: The number of governmental offices and agencies we observe will depend on the number of observers we have. In the November Voter we will publish an article describing the observer program in more detail. Contact Penny (or me) to volunteer to be an observer.

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION OF THE USA, SACRAMENTO CHAPTER ANNUAL DINNER

On Wednesday, October 24, 2007, the United Nations Association of the USA, Sacramento Chapter, will celebrate United Nations Day with its annual dinner. The guest speaker will be Carol Medlin, PhD, MPA, Assistant Professor of Anthropology, History and Social Medicine and Global Health Sciences at UC San Francisco. Her topic will be public health intervention in developing countries with an emphasis on HIV/AIDS and malaria. The LWV Sacramento County is a sponsor of this event. If you would like to attend, send a check ($35 per ticket) payable to UNA-USA Sacramento Chapter, to Patricia Pratt, 3948 Terra Vista Way, Sacramento, CA 95821-2936.

Since 1945 and before, the League of Women Voters has been one of the leading supporters of the United Nations in the United States. (See United Nations Section of www.lwv.org, under Issues, International Relations, United Nations.) The League has official NGO (Nongovernmental Organization) status at the UN and is represented by two official UN Observers.

Prior to the UN formation, the League launched a huge campaign for the adoption of the UN by the American public. We trained 5000 speakers who spoke all across the United States reaching more than one million people. As a result of our support, we were invited, by President Truman, to the UN Charter Conference, as consultants to the US delegation. We were one of about 44 NGO organizations invited to the conference.

LWV US IMMIGRATION STUDY UPDATE, LWVSC IMMIGRATION STUDY COMMITTEE

By Lola Acosta

Study Activities to Date

The LWVSC Immigration Study Committee, whose members include Lola Acosta, Betty Green-Heffern, Eileen Heaser, Judy Hoefling, Barbara Hopkins, Ruth Range, Anne Rudin, and Roseanna Torretto, organized two forums. On March 15, 2007, Cruz Reynoso, former Associate Justice of the California Supreme court and Professor of Law, University of California, Davis, and Steve Ybarra, retired Attorney at Law and Professor, Sacramento City College, spoke to League members and interested members of the public. On September 19, 2007, a panel of three speakers, Kirsten Hill, Staff Attorney, California Rural Legal Foundation and Immigration Clinic, University of California Davis School of Law, Susan Curda, District Director, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, and Elaine Abelaye, Executive Director, Asian Resources, addressed League members and interested members of the public.

The LWVSC Committee studied national League background papers, distributed these papers to units for their discussion, and wrote abstracts of papers for the Sacramento Voter to augment those published in the national Voter. Committee members interviewed community leaders to better understand local impact of immigration and immigration policy. Committee members will attend the Consensus meeting Saturday, November 10, 2007, to serve as resource persons.

Unit Meetings

Those members attending unit meetings have the opportunity to use the October meeting to discuss the study discussion questions included in this issue of the Sacramento Voter.

Planned Consensus Meeting

Save the date, Saturday, November 10, 2007, 9:00 AM to noon, for our Consensus meeting at the University of Southern California Capital Center, 1800 "I" Street, Sacramento. Coffee and refreshments will be available.

Our moderator will be League member Suzanne Phinney. A Recorder will be appointed to capture participant responses to questions and to take notes as a basis for comments. The Committee members will attend as experts on background information, providing factual answers for questions as needed.

How to Prepare for the Saturday, November 10, 2007, Consensus Meeting

If you have not read the national League Immigration Study research papers, they are available at the national League website, www.lwv.org. Resources include briefs and full background papers.

- Effects Of Global Interdependence On Migration
- Immigration and the Economy
- Overview: Federal Immigration Policy and Proposed Reforms
- Economic Aspects of Authorized and Unauthorized Immigration
- The national League web site includes a three person panel discussion moderated by Carolie Mullan, LWVUS Board Member on June 11, 2007 in Washington, DC, "Immigration Policy in the 21st Century", featuring national experts Donald Kerwin, Executive Director, Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Doris Meissner, Senior Fellow, Migration Policy Institute, and Frank Sharry, Executive Director of National Immigration Forum. You can listen to audio or watch the video at www.lwv.org .

This issue of the Sacramento Voter includes the consensus discussion questions prepared by the LWV US study committee to focus discussion and facilitate conclusions at local League meetings. The LWV US does not have a position on immigration and, as a result, did not speak to the immigration bill before Congress this year. The study timeline concludes next spring with the adoption of a position based on the results of local League discussions.

What is Consensus?

For those not familiar with a consensus meeting, it is the process used by the League to reach member agreement on study issues. Consensus is neither a simple majority nor unanimity; instead, it is an overall sense of the group. In other words, consensus results from answers to questions on which members can find common ground and agreement.

We look forward to seeing all League members at the Saturday, November 10, 2007, Consensus Meeting!
